

Parable of the Owner of the House

Matthew 13:51-52; Psalm 78:2; Matthew 13:35; Matthew 13:34;
Acts 4:13; Matthew 13:52; Matthew 5:17; John 14:26; Hebrews 5:12;
1 Corinthians 2:2; Hebrews 10:1; II Timothy 2:15

1. This parable teaches us that what we _____ about the Kingdom of God, must be taught and shared with others.
2. This parable teaches that there are _____ of understanding about the Kingdom of God.
3. Even if we understand a little, it's our responsibility to _____ it and _____ it to others.
4. In ancient Israel _____ of the law & _____ were some of the smartest, most learned men in Israel.
5. The _____ and the _____ are a dynamic combination of law and grace.
6. The Holy Spirit will not _____ knowledge in our head, but He works to _____ us of what we have already learned.
7. No matter how much we know of God's Word, we must be open to receive more _____ and _____.
8. The true treasure is knowing _____ and His _____.
9. The more we know the _____, the more the _____ becomes real to us.
10. Jesus didn't come to do away with the old; the old is _____ in Jesus!